 13 KC: This is an interview with Kathy Martinez
 14 interviewed by JoAnn Castillo on Sept. 25, 1981. Okay, 15 first of all I want to ask you about the restrictions 16 and the release that we discussed a few moments ago.
 17 You've chosen to use your name on this tape, and do 18 you place any other restrictions.
 19 KM: None whatsoever.
 20 KC: Okay. All right, let's start at the beginning. I'd 21 like you to tell me when you were born and where your 22 family lived and who your mother was, your father, 23 your brothers and sisters, that kind of thing.
 24 KM: All right, I was born Feb. 25, 1941, in New York 25 City. My parents originally came from Puerto Rico. At 1 so he wrote me and decided that he was going to give 2 it up, which was okay with me at that time.

 3 KC: Did both your parents work?
 4 KM: My parents are divorced.
 5 KC: How old were you when they got separated?
 6 KM: I believe I was around four years old when they 7 divorced. Then my mother raised us alone, primarily 8 alone. And she remarried many, many years later to my 9 young sister's father and they stayed married only a 10 couple years and then they divorced. And then my 11 mother married again, moved to L.A. where she lives at 12 present, and since divorced that husband.
 13 KC: Did she work to support you?
 14 KM: My mother always worked, yes. I believe she was on 15 welfare when we were young and got a job under an 16 assumed name and the story goes that someone, being 17 jealous because she was making a few extra bucks and 18 we could have a few extra, you know, pair of socks or 19 clothes, turned her in to the Welfare Department and I
 20 believe the social worker showed up at work one day 21 and found my mother, you know, working. They did take 22 her to court, I believe, and, of course, with three 23 children at the time, they made her promise to repay 24 it at something like five dollars, ten dollars a 25 month, I'm not quite sure. I don't know exactly if she

Page 3

1 a very early age they came to New York. I have two 2 brothers, one 39 and one 35 and I have a 22-year-old 3 sister
 4 KC: So you're the oldest?
 5 KM: And I am the oldest.
 6 KC: Where'd you live?
 7 KM: From early, I've always lived in New York. First 8 few years, I think we lived in the Bronx and then we 9 moved when I was 8 years old to Long Island City to 10 the Queens Bridge Housing Projects where I lived until 11 I was 21. Then I moved into Manhattan. First I had a 12 studio apartment I believe it was 83rd Street between 13 Central Park and Columbus. I lived there a couple 14 years, and from there I moved to the East Side, to 15 East 26th Street between 2nd and 3rd Avenues. I lived 16 there until 1965 until, at that time I went into the 17 military. I went into the Marine Corps. The apartment 18 changed hands. I kept the apartment but I gave it to a 19 friend of mine to sort of sublease it so that I would 20 have a place to come to. Then in 1967 when I got out 21 of the service, I went back to the apartment and I 22 lived there again until September of 1970 when I then 23 went into the United States Army. My brother, at that 24 time, subleased the apartment from me and he kept it a 25 couple years and then he got broken into a few times

1 ever paid it off or what, you know. But she's always 2 worked. After that, she's always worked.
 3 KC: What kind of work did she do?
 4 KM: She's always been an assembly line worker doing
 5 wiring and soldering on electronic parts. Like I think 6 she started out doing TV's and radios, then years 7 later she worked for some company that made parts for 8 the telephone company. At present, she's disabled. She 9 has a severe hearing handicap so I think she's on 10 welfare right now.
 11 KC: How'd you get along with your brothers and 12 sisters? Did you have a nice childhood?
 13 KM: Yeah, I was in a family, it wasn't a very close 14 family I guess with my mother working all our lives 15 and I being the oldest and having, you know, the 16 responsibility of my brother and the house, it didn't 17 make for friendships. So I would say we're not a very 18 close-knit family. Although, my sister, since she came 19 along so late in life, of course, I have a lot of love
 20 and regard for her. My brothers, they're my brothers.
 21 KC: You took care of them.
 22 KM: Yeah, I was responsible.
 23 KC: Was there, do you have any particular memories 24 from your childhood, particular friends, adults that 25 were important to you aside from your mother, any

1 thing that stands out in your memory?
 2 KM: Well, the only thing that stands out in my memory
 3 is that I probably feel that I never really had a 4 childhood but, you know. Other than that I had the 5 normal gang that I kind of grew up with in the housing
 6 project. Basically the same friends for many years, 7 nothing spectacular. Mostly meeting at the school, at 8 the corner candy store which were at that time the 9 popular meeting places and hanging out on the corner 10 for, basically, you know, every day and weekends and 11 being bored.

12 KC: Mostly women or was it a mixed crowd?
 13 KM: No, it was definitely a mixed crowd, you know, the 14 boys and the girls. And then when people got old 15 enough to have cars, the guys have the cars and on 16 weekends then we'd started going out to like miniature 17 golf and going out on the island for miniature golf 18 and bowling and stuff like that. But nothing too 19 spectacular. Everybody got married at a very young 20 age. Most of the girls that I grew up with married at 21 18 as soon as they could. And mostly married the boys 22 that we grew up with. I went to more weddings during 23 that period of my life than I can believe. I had no 24 particular interest in getting married at the time. In 25 fact I already knew that I was gay when I was 16 so,

1 of course, I had no plans to marry.
 2 KC: How did you know?
 3 KM: My recollection of how I knew I was gay was really 4 strange for me. It was one day I was hanging out on 5 the corner, as I always did, with my friends and one
 6 woman in particular was a good friend. And I remember 7 going home that night, going up and getting ready for 8 bed and going to sleep, and waking up the next morning
 9 and getting dressed and going outside. And I think it 10 was summer and going to this particular friend's house
 11 and calling her from the window, which was the thing 12 you did in those days, you called your friend from the 13 window. And I remember her coming her downstairs and I
 14 remember looking at her and getting this funny feeling 15 and not understanding what that was about right away.
 16 And then the funny feeling persisted and I realized
 17 that I liked her more than just as a friend. But this 18 time, of course, we always talked about @the@ queers.
 19 We used to go down to Greenwich Village sometimes and 20 see gays and, you know, of course, snicker and call 21 them queer and stuff like that. And then I realized, 22 oh my goodness, I think I'm queer. It wasn't earth-
 23 shaking for me. I didn't go through any major changes 24 around it. The only thing I felt was that I had no one 25 to talk to about it. The only lesbian that I knew of

1 in our neighborhood had recently moved so that was my 2 one and only source and she was no longer there. So
 3 for three years until I was 19, I kind of just knew I 4 was gay but I kept it inside.

5 KC: Did you go out with men or with the other boys?
 6 IS1:100-199

7 KM: No, after everybody got married after 18 years
 8 old, I mean, there was no more gang. So I was working 9 full-time all this time so I had met other people at 10 work and stuff so I was doing different things now.
 11 But all these people were straight basically. But they 12 didn't involve men as a rule. It was usually other 13 women. And just keeping all this feeling inside 14 because there was no one and still, even at 19 there 15 was still no one that I had met to talk to. I used to 16 go down to Greenwich Village and walk around down 17 there on the weekends by myself hoping that someone 18 would recognize I was gay and talk to me, you know. Or 19 I would try to look for the bars 'cause I mean, I knew 20 they were down there, but I didn't know where they 21 were and I wasn't about to start sticking my nose into 22 every bar in Greenwich Village. So it was a sad time 23 only because I couldn't talk about it or, you know, 24 find out more about it or meet other gay people.

25 KC: Did anyone else in your family know that you know

1 of? Was anybody hip to it?

2 KM: I believe my mother was. I believe that now
 3 because when I came out to her about six or seven 4 years ago, she just said well, I've always known. So I 5 would imagine she had some suspicions at that time, 6 you know. But I didn't give her any reason to really 7 know for sure because, you know, until I was 19, I 8 didn't have any gay friends nor was I involved in any 9 gay relationships.

10 KC: You once told me a story about how you used to 11 comb your hair.

12 KM: Yeah, I used to wear my hair very short and 13 because I have ten fingers when it comes to doing 14 anything feminine with my hair, the easiest way out 15 for me was just to comb my hair back. And my mother 16 hated it, absolutely hated it. And she walked into the 17 bathroom one day when I was combing my hair and I was 18 standing in front of the mirror and with sort of my 19 legs spread apart in a stance, you know, and had the 20 comb up to my hair with one hand on my hair which 21 follows the line of the comb going through your hair 22 which was definitely a very masculine type way of 23 combing your hair. I remember my mother being very 24 perturbed about that and sort of indicating to me that 25 perhaps I should let my grow or, you know. She would

1 try and sit me down and pin-curl my hair and, you
2 know, do all kind of things to kind of fluff it up,
3 but it didn't work.
4 KC: How'd you dress?
5 KM: Well, for work, of course, at the time pant-suits 6 had not come in yet so I definitely wore sweaters and 7 skirts or blouses and skirts with nylons to work.
8 After work, it would be slacks and a blouse and, of 9 course, when I moved eventually, my clothes got 10 somewhat more severe. Although now that I look at 11 photographs of myself, I realize in a lot of ways that 12 I was not as heavy a dresser as a lot of lesbians were 13 then. But definitely always slacks and button-down 14 shirts.
15 KC: Was that unusual among your friends that you used 16 to hang out with?
17 KM: No, that attire was pretty much the rule for quote 18 @butches,@ and, of course, the fems dressed more 19 feminine.
20 KC: There was another question I wanted to ask before 21 we get into your coming out. I wanted to ask you, was 22 your background as you grew up, was it strongly Puerto 23 Rican? Did you live in Puerto Rican neighborhoods? Did 24 you speak Spanish at home?
25 KM: No, we didn't speak Spanish at home. My mother

1 would call me Mar-tin-ez'.
2 KC: About hold old do you think you were?
3 KM: I was not yet in junior high school. I was in 4 grade school somewhere, but already about 5th or 6th
5 or maybe even 7th grade. So our identification, I
6 would say I was a Puerto Rican and I think my brothers 7 would say it too, but I don't think that we really 8 knew what that meant, you know. I grew up mainly in a 9 white environment and so I think really I spent years 10 of my life identifying white, thinking white and 11 acting white. It was only when I became a correctional 12 officer some years later, that I started hanging 13 around with a lot of third-world women because 14 primarily the staff was third-world. So our 15 identification was pretty, pretty non-existent.
16 KC: All right, so at about 19, you sort of indicate 17 that that was a turning point. What happened at that 18 time?
19 KM: Well, my mother was pregnant at the time with my 20 sister and got to be friendly with this woman neighbor 21 that lived in the housing project in another building
22 and she was a young woman, and they got to be better 23 and better friends. And my mother asked her to be my 24 sister's godmother which is, you know, a big honor 25 among Latin families. I didn't like this particular

1 definitely had some ideas around that. When I
2 questioned her the last few years as to why she, you
3 know, found it necessary not to speak Spanish at home,
4 and I don't know, she did a whole denial trip on it so 5 that if we had wanted to learn Spanish, we could have 6 learned it on our own which I think is pretty fucked
7 up because we didn't have any other Spanish friends.
8 Me and my brothers grew up primarily with all - I know 9 I did - white people. My brother Robert, which is the 10 youngest boy, predominantly he hung around with black 11 kids. And my brother John, my middle brother, also 12 tended to lean toward having more white friends than 13 not. But none of us had Spanish friends. And I don't 14 speak Spanish well today although I can speak it. I 15 understand it pretty well.
16 KC: You speak it better than you let on.
17 KM: And as far as identifying, for years we called 18 ourselves Mar-tin-ez' and not Mar-tin'-ez because 19 that's how we were taught to say our name and it was 20 an instructor in school, I remember, and I can't 21 remember whether it was a male or a female, I remember 22 them saying to me, your name is not Mar-tin-ez', your 23 name is Mar-tin'-ez. And once that was said to me
24 after that, I would never let anybody call me Mar-tin-25 ez' and I would start correcting people when they

1 woman at first. She was married and had two children, 2 two boys. So I guess she decided that since she was 3 going to be a member of the family, that she would try 4 to cultivate my friendship and one day she invited me 5 over to her house for dinner. Well, that was the 6 beginning of a very good friendship because she was an 7 excellent cook and since I loved to eat, I saw her in 8 a different light. So I started going over there quite 9 a bit to eat.
10 KC: Was your mother a good cook?
11 1S1:200-299
12 KM: My mother was a good cook but she was not into as 13 much Latin cooking as this woman was. And I got to eat 14 more varieties of Latin food that I hadn't experienced 15 at home. But my mother was a good cook but I remember 16 my mother starting to manifest this feeling of 17 jealousy because all of a sudden, out of seven days in 18 a week, I was eating at Carmen's house six days a 19 week, you know. So my mother started what's the matter 20 for you, you know, don't you like my cooking, you 21 know, that kind of nonsense. But during that time, 22 Carmen and I spent a lot of time with each other. Her 23 husband was about 20-some odd years older than she 24 was. And Carmen was four years older than I was when I 25 met her so she was 23. So her husband spent a lot of

1 time away from home with his cronies and stuff. So we 2 spent a lot of time together. And I don't know, one
 3 day, you know, she caught me looking at her and I
 4 would, you know, look away and I began to realize I 5 was getting a crush on this woman and that was very 6 weird for me 'cause I didn't know what to do about it
 7 and, you know, she was married and had kids and so I 8 thought that was taboo. But as it turned out, she was 9 the one that actually ended up, actually instigating
 10 any physical contact between us. It wasn't me, 11 definitely wasn't me. And that was - on a trip back 12 from the Island, we had gone out on a weekend, like on 13 a Sunday to a Puerto Rican family's home. They were 14 having a big festival and they were roasting a pig and 15 it was really, you know, a great day and stuff and on 16 the way back, I was riding in the back seat with 17 Carmen and her husband and a friend, male-type, were 18 in the front seat. And I remember sitting there next 19 to her, being very aware of her, and the next thing I 20 know, she slips off her shoes and starts playing with 21 my feet and around my ankles, you know, and god, the 22 blood just rushed to my face and I just - it was about 23 an hour's drive back from the Island to our house and 24 to the projects. And my god, my god, I was sweating 25 and couldn't swallow. So we get back to her

1 apartment - I don't know why I decided to sleep over 2 there, I don't know whether we had already made those 3 plans prior. But I was going to spend the night there
 4 on the sofa. And when we get into the house, a few 5 minutes later, Carmen turns around to her husband and 6 says that she's hungry and I remember her husband's 7 reaction because Carmen was not in any shape or form a 8 big eater - saying you're hungry? You know, we had 9 this tremendous feast out at the Island. Anyway, so 10 the next thing I know, he's being packed off to this 11 Italian restaurant to pick up some up some Italian
 12 food. And his friend had left already and so Carmen 13 and I were left together and all of a sudden she 14 disappears into her bedroom and in the next minute or 15 so, she comes out in this peignoir set. And I was 16 rocked on my heels. I just didn't know what was going 17 down. I was still flying high from this whole, you 18 know, drive back with the feetsy game. And the next I
 19 know, she's standing next to me and I don't remember 20 who did what but I know that we kissed and I remember 21 looking out of the window and putting my hands behind 22 my back and saying hm, a beautiful night. You know, 23 and I remember this woman just busting out laughing
 24 'cause it must have been so weird going, @Hm, a 25 beautiful night, you know.@ And the next thing I know,

1 I guess we were kissing again and it got very hot and 2 passionate. Both of us kind of fumbling around 'cause 3 we didn't know what the hell was going on, we didn't 4 know what to do. But it seemed to take a natural 5 course. But Tony was on the way back so we, you know, 6 had to cut it short. But the next day after he left 7 for work, it was - we were off and running. And we had 8 a relationship for two years.
 9 KC: Did anyone know?
 10 KM: I'm sure my mother knew, I'm sure that Carmen's 11 husband knew but no one ever made it difficult for us.
 12 In fact the only person that probably made it any kind 13 of difficult was my mother. After a while, she just 14 got very, very questiony about well, why are you 15 always spending so much time at Carmen's house, you 16 know, every night. So that after a while, I would not 17 go some evenings, but I would take off in the daytime 18 and, you know, be home in the evening so my mother 19 wouldn't have so much to say around it.
 20 KC: How'd you manage to keep your job?
 21 KM: Well, you know, I had been there going on seven 22 years so it wasn't like, they needed me.
 23 KC: What were you doing, by the way?
 24 KM: I was doing bookkeeping for a small company.
 25 KC: And you started this job as soon as you finished

1 high school?
 2 KM: No, I didn't finish high school. I quit school
 3 when I was 16 and worked at a couple of jobs. Almost 4 before my 18th birthday, I got this job and I stayed 5 there until I was about 24.
 6 KC: Okay, so back to Carmen, she had kids, didn't she?
 7 KM: Yeah, she had two boys.
 8 KC: How old were school age, you know, so they went to 9 school during the day. And at night I would help them 10 with their homework and, you know, they would take 11 their baths and help them and stuff and put them to 12 bed. And we'd be in the living room doing whatever, 13 you know, carefully of course. I was always very 14 conscious of the kids being there. But it seemed to 15 work out, the kids, I had a good rapport with them so 16 they never seemed to indicate that anything was 17 strange. We weren't demonstrative with each other when 18 the kids were up and around. In fact in front of 19 anybody, just when we were alone. I think Carmen's 20 mother might have also had some idea. But the thing 21 was that Carmen's family really cared about me. So 22 they took me into the family. I felt guilty at times 23 about Tony because he was such a nice man and he 24 always referred to me like his daughter, but that 25 didn't stop me or Carmen for that matter.

1 KC: So from your first attempts at fumbling around, 2 did any sexual pattern set in as to how you two 3 related to each other?
 4 1S1:300-399
 5 KM: Well, of course, we did find out all the wonderful 6 things that were open to us as lesbians or at least as 7 women, you know. Yeah, the pattern was that we didn't 8 refer to each other as butch and fem 'cause I really 9 didn't know too much about it yet. But I was basically 10 the aggressor and she was usually passive. It's real 11 hard for me to even remember at this point in my life
 12 with Carmen whether or not she ever actually made love 13 to me, I don't remember. It's real strange. Sometimes 14 I wonder about some of my ex-relationships and whether 15 or not they actually ever touched me or not. But I 16 can't remember them, you know, so maybe if they did, 17 it certainly wasn't that often.
 18 KC: Did you climax do you think?
 19 KM: I mean, that's strange, I don't know, I mean, 20 compared to what I, you know, experience now and what 21 I remember about then, it wasn't the same kind of 22 climax. It was a climax of having given pleasure and 23 feeling good about that. But as far as remembering an 24 actual climax, I don't remember many of those in my 25 earlier years.

1 KC: But it was a total and satisfying with expression 2 of love.
 3 KM: Yes, it was. I, you know, until I learned many, 4 many, many years later, it felt very satisfactory to 5 me. I didn't feel that I was not getting something in 6 return.
 7 KC: Or that you were being left hanging, like excited 8 but not satiated?
 9 KM: Right, yeah, I mean, I always felt okay. I mean, 10 it felt okay I remember, yeah.
 11 KC: So what brought that to an end? Wait a minute! You 12 said you found out about things that were open to you 13 as women. You mean sexually, just by exploring? So you 14 had no other contact with lesbians? You never went to 15 bars?
 16 KM: No, I still had never been to my first bar. In 17 fact I never went to my first bar 'til I was 24. And 18 prior to that, I didn't meet lesbians until I was 21
 19 which happened in Puerto Rico on a vacation and I met 20 some women down there and they were older than I was.
 21 I think the youngest was eight years older than I was 22 at the time. And I remember liking them; they were 23 very, very intelligent attractive women. And we made 24 plans to get in touch with each other when we got back 25 to New York. And I definitely did get in touch with

1 them and started getting invited out to different
 2 things with them. But I wasn't sure if they were gay 3 or not when I first met them. I just knew that they 4 were a class of women that I wanted to get to know.
 5 KC: Did this coincide, the trip to Puerto Rico, was 6 this at about the time that your relationship with 7 Carmen was ending?
 8 KM: No, no, it was after the trip to Puerto Rico that 9 things between us started getting shaky. And it had to 10 do a lot with the fact that I started seeing this 11 group of women more and more and more. I started 12 spending more time with them. They introduced me to a 13 really new area which I really enjoyed, like music, 14 the ballet, art museums, just, you know, all these 15 things that I had never really done before which I 16 always wanted to do. But growing up with the kind of 17 crowd I did, you didn't mention going and doing those 18 kinds of things. So I started spending a lot more time 19 with them, and seeing less of Carmen. And, of course, 20 she started balking at that. And finally at one point 21 gave me an ultimatum choosing between her and this new 22 life that I had found. And, of course, I opted for the 23 new life knowing that Carmen and I would probably go 24 on like that forever. I didn't see her getting a 25 divorce. I didn't even contemplate her getting a

1 divorce and us living together with the kids and 2 stuff. So that primarily is what happened. She gave me
 3 this ultimatum and I just went the other way.
 4 KC: Did you ever see her again?
 5 KM: Well, yeah, of course, I saw her. She lived in the 6 housing project for years as did my mother, so I would 7 see her when I went back to visit and stuff.
 8 KC: Did she ever establish any other liaisons to your 9 knowledge?
 10 KM: Not to my knowledge. I mean, she stayed with her 11 husband and the kids also. She was always very bitter 12 toward me afterwards. Carmen started drinking a lot 13 later in her life and I remember once getting together 14 with her at a sort of family reunion type thing and 15 she was pretty intoxicated.
 16 1S1:400-405
 17 And I remember her indicating to me that she would 18 never forgive me for having left her.
 19 End of Side 1, Tape 1 of 2
 20 1S2:010-099
 21 KC: Okay, so you started to see this group of women.
 22 How many women were there and how did you meet them in 23 Puerto Rico? How'd you run into them?
 24 KM: I believe we were staying at the same hotel which 25 was more like a smaller version of a hotel. It wasn't

1 so big that, you know, you didn't see other people.
 2 And I think we were on the beach one day or something 3 of that nature and I started talking to them or they 4 talked to me. I'm not quite sure. But I just 5 realized - I only met two of them there. And when I 6 got back, they in turn introduced me to some of their 7 friends which I ended up becoming very close friends 8 with two of the women they introduced me to.
 9 KC: Were these women Puerto Rican?
 10 KM: No, one was black and one was Jewish, and the two 11 people that I met in Puerto Rico were Jewish women.
 12 One of the two women eventually became my lover. Not 13 the women I met in Puerto Rico but the women they 14 introduced me to.
 15 KC: Were those two women lovers at the time?
 16 KM: No. But they were the best of friends, they were 17 best friends. And it happened very in sort of a just a 18 natural course of events because this particular woman 19 had never had, that I've ever been about to know of, 20 had ever had a gay relationship. And she kind of took 21 me under her wing. And what happened was I remember I 22 started spending a lot of time with them and they were 23 all getting ready to go to Haiti for a vacation. And 24 this particular woman said to me, well, why don't you 25 apartment-sit for me while I'm gone and see how you

1 up. Everything was on credit so I thought that's the 2 way you did it. And incredibly in two months, this 3 woman had enough money saved for me for first and 4 last, deposit on PG&E and all kind of things.
 5 KC: So she was basically saving money out of your 6 paycheck for you. She wasn't taking it and paying her 7 rent? She was managing your money.
 8 KM: No, she didn't accept any money from me while I 9 stayed with her.
 10 KC: So she was basically doing you a favor all the way 11 around.
 12 KM: Oh, very much so. She was a social worker. I 13 think, you know, she wanted to be a social worker.
 14 KC: So she was a social worker. Were most of these 15 women semi-professional, professional?
 16 KM: Yeah.
 17 KC: Well, judging from the vacations.
 18 KM: Yeah, they were professionals, all of them. And 19 during that two-month period that I stayed at my 20 friend's house -
 21 KC: What's her name?
 22 KM: I hesitate to say her name, I do, in this one 23 particular case.
 24 KC: You could make up a name for her to refer to her.
 25 Whatever easiest for you.

1 like being out on your own, because already by this 2 time, my new friends were wondering why, at 21, I was 3 still living at home. Basically I couldn't, you know, 4 I couldn't afford to do otherwise.
 5 KC: And also if Carmen were to catch you.
 6 KM: Yeah, and then there was Carmen, that's true too, 7 so I stayed at home. So I, you know, I jumped at the 8 chance and she had this great, you know, apartment in 9 a brownstone in New York up in the 80's near Central 10 Park West. It was summertime and it was fabulous. I 11 loved it. I must have cleaned that woman's house five 12 times a day, I mean, I was so nervous about, you know, 13 taking care of somebody else's space. And in fact, 14 when the other friends would call, the two women that 15 I met in Puerto Rico, it inevitably seemed I was 16 cleaning this house and it became a joke. But anyway, 17 when my friend came back from her vacation, it was 18 real clear that I loved living, you know, out of my 19 home, out from my mother's house. So she made me an 20 offer which was that she would let me stay with her at 21 her apartment and, in turn, I would have to turn over 22 my paycheck to her and she would give me enough money 23 to get to work and for cigarettes and for lunches and 24 for my bills. Because I had already started a habit of 25 living, you know, credit. I mean, that's how I grew

1 KM: Okay, Sally. While I stayed with her during this 2 two-month period, we got into a relationship.
 3 KC: And you don't think that she had had a lesbian 4 affair prior to?
 5 KM: No, I mean, I had asked her and she said no.
 6 KC: But she'd been hanging out with all these other 7 lesbians.
 8 KM: Well, the thing is to this day, I still don't know 9 whether the two women I met in Puerto Rico were, 10 although they were the best of friends, forever in 11 each other's company. But I never saw them be 12 demonstrative. So I was very confused as to whether 13 they were or not. There was no conversations around 14 gayness and stuff, I mean, so it was really like if 15 they were, they definitely were in the closet to 16 everybody, even their friends. So Sally and I just 17 sort of slid into this relationship. It just started 18 with, you know, first my sleeping on the sofa and then 19 eventually, you know, sleeping in bed with her and 20 then bodies touching and then a general kiss. And it 21 just went one step at a time until we were.
 22 KC: With no one in particular initiating it?
 23 KM: Right, yeah. It was just our constantly being 24 together and around each other. We just sort of slid 25 into it. It was kind of nice. It was nice the way it

1 happened. It was very slow and very nice, very gentle.
 2 And so, but I was never allowed to ever, ever, ever
 3 indicate to anyone that she and I were having a 4 relationship. And to this day I still hold that 5 promise inside. That's why I don't feel comfortable, 6 you know, mentioning who she is.
 7 KC: So you guys socialized primarily with women but 8 nobody wasn't all that - nobody discussed it.
 9 KM: Nobody discussed it. I'm trying to remember now, I 10 think I was out to them. I think I was. I don't even 11 remember if I was or whether it was just assumed I 12 was, I don't know as a matter of fact. I don't 13 remember, you know, ever discussing it. I mean, here 14 was Sally and I having this relationship totally, 15 totally involving just the two of us. I mean, there 16 was nobody else outside of the two of us that, as far 17 as we knew, knew. There was one person that would 18 accuse us off and on of having one, which was Sally's 19 best friend. And, of course, it was denial, denial, 20 denial, you know, even to this day. It was a total 21 denial.
 22 KC: Do you ever see Sally or her friend when you go 23 back east?
 24 KM: Yes, I do, yeah, I do. Yeah, because I mean, they 25 were, they are very important in my life. So yes,

1 mean, I definitely was impressed by her. She started, 2 especially when she drank, she would get very, very 3 loose in some ways. And I started getting hints that 4 she was coming on to me. And at first, I was like nah, 5 that's not happening. But after a while it became real 6 clear that that was exactly what was happening. And 7 after a while, she just let it, when we were alone 8 together, oh, she started, you know, if not 9 verbalizing suggestive things to me, she would tease
 10 me in ways that were really beginning to really turn 11 me on to her, you know. But I also knew something 12 about her and it was that anything that she could have 13 immediately, she would discard soon after. So I was 14 young but I wasn't stupid. So we played this game of 15 chase and run. I was running and she chased. And for a 16 whole summer, and I'll never forget it, it was the 17 summer of '62 - it was incredible summer for me. It 18 was just fun-filled with wonderful days in the parks
 19 and concerts in the park and playing tennis which I 20 was learning how to do. And just wonderful days spent, 21 weekend especially, spent with them. And she got very 22 persistent at that time. And it was getting pretty 23 scary because I knew I was getting really attracted to 24 her.
 25 KC: And you were still -

1 Sally is, to this day, best friends with this woman
 2 who's been her best friend for seventeen or so years.
 3 But whether they are involved in any other way, you 4 would never know it.
 5 1S2:100-199
 6 To this day, I still don't know if she and this other 7 woman have something going. It's amazing.
 8 KC: I mean, over and over again, people tell me 9 circles of friends where everybody was coupled and 10 nobody ever discussed it.
 11 KM: Oh yeah, so this is not uncommon, you know, but 12 when I look back on it now and see how much time we 13 spent with each other, and yet there was no 14 verbalization at all. And the only time you might have 15 thought there might have been some involvement amongst 16 these women was the fact that maybe every now and 17 then, you would see a tender touch or something. But 18 even that you couldn't really say was indicative of a 19 lesbian relationship. What happened was I ended up the 20 best friend of Sally's was definitely one of the most 21 fantastic women I had ever met in my life. She 22 definitely was a Bohemian before the word became 23 popular. She definitely was into health foods. She was 24 an incredible person. She had a gaiety about life that 25 was, you know, enormous. I was very, very impressed, I

1 KM: Yes, I was still involved with Sally.
 2 KC: You weren't living together with Sally?
 3 KM: No, by this time, I mean, I had moved out a few 4 months after I stayed with her and got my own place, 5 not too far away.
 6 KC: And this was in the 80's?
 7 KM: Yeah, in the '80's, so I was only a few blocks 8 away from her. And so it got pretty hairy and it was 9 getting to the point where I really wanted to sleep
 10 with this woman and eventually I did, even though I 11 was still involved with Sally. I was guilty and I felt 12 torn but I was so, so infatuated with this other woman
 13 that there was just no way I could have stopped 14 myself. Eventually the upshot came that I did break up 15 with Sally.
 16 KC: Did she know why?
 17 KM: Yes. And it was my first experience with 18 heartbreak. I felt really bad. I felt bad around 19 Carmen too, but not as bad - I felt, you know, she had 20 a husband and kids, I don't know. But with Sally 21 because she had been so wonderful to me, I felt really 22 rotten. But, like I said, I was just so infatuated 23 with the other woman that that just didn't stop me. So 24 I think my relationship with Sally went on, it was 25 about two years. And toward the end of that two years,

1 that's when myself and the other woman started getting 2 involved. And then (phone rings) we lasted for about 3 two years also. (Recorder turned off momentarily).
 4 KC: Okay, so you're breaking up with Sally and 5 starting to see her friend.
 6 KM: It was traumatic because I remember she cried a 7 lot. I cried but it just boiled down to I could not,
 8 you know, I could not help myself. I was thoroughly, 9 thoroughly in love with this woman.
 10 KC: So Sally knew that you were starting a 11 relationship with her best friend.
 12 KM: But the best friend, never to this day, knows that 13 for sure that Sally and I ever had a relationship. So 14 I hope to god she never finds out but somehow I feel I 15 broke a solemn pledge.
 16 KC: So I'm a little bit confused about the chronology 17 because the summer when you were 21, that was the 18 summer of '62.
 19 KM: I believe so.
 20 KC: And that was the summer in which Sally's friend 21 was chasing you but you said that you saw Sally for 22 two years which would have meant that you started to 23 see Sally when you were 19.
 24 KM: All right, I see. I went into, I remember going 25 into the Marine Corps when I was 24 and I was with the

1 do.
 2 1S2@200-299
 3 She did exactly what she pleased and I guess that's 4 maybe what I found so fascinating about her, until it 5 started infringing on our relationship then.
 6 KC: Had Sally been seeing men while you two were 7 involved with each other?
 8 KM: She would have an occasional date and would always 9 seem to be very happy to get home. But very 10 occasionally because I don't remember it bothering me 11 or anything like that.
 12 KC: And you always maintained a separate house, a 13 separate apartment?
 14 KM: Always.
 15 KC: And where would you spend most of your time?
 16 KM: It was funny, wait a minute, oh yeah, I forgot.
 17 Jay and I used to go to hotels a lot 'cause I forgot.
 18 Somewhere along the line, she was going with somebody 19 else too. That's right, I forgot about that.
 20 KC: Woman of man?
 21 KM: No, a woman. And they lived together. This is very 22 - I think I'll have to remember this story correctly
 23 now. Yeah, somewhere along the line, she started going 24 with this other woman when we were playing footsies.
 25 Actually, when we started playing around with each

1 other woman at this time. So that was 24. Then we go 2 backwards, 23. So many it was a year but it was at 3 least from 21 to almost 23 when I was seeing Sally for 4 sure. And then it may have been only a year or so. It 5 seemed like forever but it was only a year with her 6 friend. And maybe they intertwined for a while there
 7 too. I don't know how long we really played footsies 8 like that before we actually decided to become lovers.
 9 I get mixed up too, you know, what can I say?
 10 KC: Did you continue to play the same type of sexual 11 roles?
 12 KM: No, not with Jay. No, she was a totally 13 uninhibited woman and she was much more into showing 14 me new things sexually.
 15 KC: Such as?
 16 KM: I believe - it's really strange with me, I don't 17 know why I block out things. But I believe that I 18 performed 69 with her the first time, but I might have 19 before but I don't remember. It seems vivid in my mind 20 that I experienced that with her.
 21 KC: And did she make love to you?
 22 KM: Yes, yes, she did, she did. Like I said, she was 23 totally different from anybody that I had met up to 24 that point. She wasn't into roles or anything. She 25 still saw men too, I mean, she did what she wanted to

1 other, I was going with someone and actually she was 2 going with someone. And maybe that's why the years
 3 overlapped because she stayed with this other woman 4 and I stayed with Sally and we'd go to hotels and 5 stuff for a long time. And I remember once there was a 6 mix-up and I ended up in one place and Jay ended up in 7 another place and so we never came together that night 8 and it was real funny 'cause I ended up staying in the 9 room. I slept there, you know, woke up the next 10 morning and realized, you know, she had never shown 11 up. And I remember finally getting her on the phone 12 that afternoon 'cause her line was busy, busy, busy, 13 busy. I couldn't understand what was going on. And 14 when I finally got her on the phone, she was so angry.
 15 And I tried to figure out what she was so angry about.
 16 I laughed. I thought it was a funny, I thought it was 17 a funny, you know, mix-up. She was absolutely livid, 18 livid. In fact, she was so livid that she had almost 19 literally destroyed her apartment, she was so upset.
 20 KC: Why didn't you go to your apartment? You were 21 living alone.
 22 KM: No, I wasn't. I had a roommate. That's right, I
 23 did have a roommate in that apartment. I started out 24 there alone and then eventually this woman ended up 25 being my roommate somehow. So yeah, that was another,

1 right. We couldn't do it at my house and we couldn't 2 do it at her house, so we would go to hotels. And so I
3 remember finally going over there after I talked to 4 her on the phone and the furniture was all upside down
5 and the woman she was living with tried to calm her 6 down. And oh, it was terrible and I'm laughing through 7 the whole thing. She almost knocked me out because I
8 thought it was funny. She wasn't very pleased about 9 that. Yeah, so for a long time, that's exactly what we 10 did, now that I think back on it. We both had these 11 relationships going and yet we had an affair going 12 together and we went to hotels.

13 KC: Were you jealous of her other lover? You always 14 paint yourself as a very jealous possessive person to 15 me. But these early relationships don't bear that out.

16 KM: Hm, that's food for thought. No, I guess maybe 17 because I was still involved with Sally, it didn't, 18 you know. I know somewhere along the line, we both 19 eventually broke up with our respective lovers and 20 became lovers. And in fact by this time I was living 21 on East 26th Street and now I was actually living by 22 myself. And so the motels and hotels ceased.

23 KC: What kind of work were you doing at this time?
24 Were you still bookkeeping?

25 KM: No, I had already been into, let me see, was I

1 uniforms. I fell in love with the Navy uniform for 2 women. I loved the hat, actually it was the hat. So
3 when I walked into the recruiting station, I made a
4 beeline for the Navy recruiter or the Navy desk
5 anyway, and the recruiter was not there. So this slick
6 Marine Corps recruiter slides up to me and the next 7 thing I know, I am going into the Marine Corps. I
8 think mainly it was one of these ideas that if I
9 didn't go ahead and do it, I might chicken out and I
10 wouldn't go back. So the next thing I know, I'm being 11 processed to go into the Marine Corps.

12 KC: Aside from your dream to be in the Navy, you'd 13 never acted on it until this time?

14 KM: I sent away for some written material on it at 15 some time.

16 1S2:300-399

17 And I don't know why I never followed through with it.
18 But I remember going home that night and seeing Jay 19 and telling her what I did and I remember her being 20 bitchy and saying oh, I'll bet you won't go through 21 with it. And I said something like well, how much do 22 you bet? And I don't remember whether the figure was 23 50 or 25 or 50 dollars, but anyway we settled on a 24 figure. And I did go through with it.

25 KC: Could you have even backed out?

1 still at Enterprise? Yeah, actually I was still 2 working as bookkeeper for that small company. In fact
3 I stayed with that company until September of '65
4 'cause I entered the Marine Corps at that time. So my 5 relationship with Jay was coming to an end. I was - 6 once she and I became lovers, then the jealousy 7 happened. I mean, then I became very possessive, very 8 jealous of her. And she still was who she was. And I 9 remember spending many, many nights by myself while 10 she would go out with other people and do other things 11 and I would sit home and brood instead of maintaining 12 or establishing friendships of my own. And that led to 13 anger on her part that I would be sitting home and 14 then maybe a little bit of guilt on her part. So our 15 relationship started kind of falling apart. I became 16 angrier and angrier at her for spending less and less 17 time with me. And one day I left work, I left work, 18 went to 42nd Street where there was a recruiting 19 station for all four services, all housed in one small 20 little building. And it was funny, I don't even 21 consciously remember making the decision to go to 42nd
22 Street and do this. All I know is the next thing I 23 know I'm on 42nd Street at the recruiting station. And 24 I had always wanted to join the Navy even since I saw 25 my first World War Two movie and I saw women in

1 KM: Oh yeah, I hadn't gotten sworn in yet. Just 2 paperwork and stuff had been done. And so I wonder now
3 that we talk about it, I wonder would I have changed 4 my mind, I don't know. I mean, you can't go back and 5 decide but I wonder. But anyway the bet was made and,
6 of course, I tend to have a stubborn streak so I went 7 through with it. And the next thing that I know after 8 I had been sworn in, that day or the next day after 9 that, Jay turns up with either 25 or 50 crisp, I mean, 10 crisp, brand new one-dollar bills and counts them out 11 to me. I'll never forget that, you know, all these 12 brand new dollar bills. So I took my money. Anyway, so 13 she kept the apartment, as a matter of fact, for a 14 while.

15 KC: So you guys didn't live together?

16 KM: No, no, no, I mean, I didn't want to give up the 17 apartment because it was a cute little apartment in a 18 nice area which was rapidly becoming a very @in@ area.
19 And I remember I only paid something like $63.78 for 20 this studio apartment but it was a cute little place;
21 it was very nice for one person. So I think she sublet 22 it from me and eventually ended up subletting it to 23 someone else, but the apartment still was mine. So
24 then I went into the Marine Corps in September of 1965
25 and went into basic training at Fort McClellan,

1 Alabama, no, no, I'm sorry, that's the Army. Parris
 2 Island, South Carolina. And went through nine weeks of 3 that nonsense. And then was assigned to permanent duty
 4 at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot in San Diego which I 5 was ecstatic about because, of course, I wanted to 6 come to California. So when I got the station of my 7 choice, I was just, you know, beside myself with 8 happiness. And I went home for seven days. I went back 9 to New York for a 7-day leave prior to coming out to 10 California to report to my duty station. And I saw all 11 my friends and had a great time for a week.
 12 KC: You still had not been going to lesbian bars. Is 13 that correct?
 14 KM: Oh, no. Let me see, 'cause it was Jay who 15 introduced me to my first lesbian bar. In fact, I went 16 just before I went into the Corps, as a matter of 17 fact. She took me to my first lesbian bar.
 18 KC: What bar or where was it?
 19 KM: It was down, not in the Village, it was off the 20 Village. I always have the name of the place on the 21 tip of my tongue and then it goes away. And then some 22 time later after I think about it, it comes back. So 23 if it comes back to me, I'll - 24 KC: Do you remember whereabouts it was?
 25 KM: Somewhere off 14th Street, somewhere.

1 KC: What was it like? What did you feel like going in 2 there?
 3 KM: Well, I remember the first time, she had found out
 4 where one was and asked me if I wanted to go and I
 5 said yes. And I think we both were dressed in skirts 6 or dresses that evening. I don't know, I think we had 7 been out to the theater or something and then she said
 8 I know of a lesbian bar and I went wow, you know. So 9 we went, but I remember being absolutely, my heart was 10 in my mouth as we approached the door and walked in.
 11 And it wasn't crowded, it was during the week so it
 12 wasn't really crowded but I remember just feeling I 13 have found a home. It felt great. I just sat there and 14 looked around and, you know, just looked at all these 15 women.
 16 KC: What was it like?
 17 KM: Oh, it was a lot of women dressed in pants and 18 shirts and a lot of short hair, you know.
 19 KC: It was all lesbian? There were no men?
 20 KM: No, it was all lesbian. And just feeling, wow, it 21 was just an incredible wonderful feeling for me, I 22 remember. And after that introduction, I was there 23 literally almost every night. By myself I would go. I 24 mean, it was just - and then made some friends, made 25 some pretty good friends, as matter of fact. And had

1 this going-away party for myself when I was going to 2 leave for Basic. And ended up with about 60 women in 3 my house. I'm trying to remember, you know, where all 4 these women came from into this studio apartment. But 5 it was great. I remember waking up the next morning
 6 and finding people sleeping on my floor, you know. So 7 it was fun.
 8 1S2:400-425
 9 I kept, you know, the few friends that I had made, I
 10 stayed in touch with them and, you know, we got back 11 together when I came home two years later. But it was 12 just great finding a bar.
 13 KC: Would you say that the women in the bar were 14 fairly well role-defined or?
 15 KM: Oh yeah, I mean, the roles were clearly defined. I 16 mean, there was no question of who was a butch and who 17 was a fem.
 18 KC: And aside from the sexual style, what other thing 19 characterized butches and fems.
 20 KM: The thing that I noted mostly was that there were 21 two classes. There were your friends and there were 22 your lovers. And I guess your lover really was your 23 friend but you didn't look at her as your friend. She 24 was your lover. Whatever that conjured up, that's who 25 she was, that was your lover.

1 End of Side 2, Tape 1 of 2
 2 2S1:000-099
 3 KM: - that you partied with, that you spent time with,
 4 and spent time with them without your lover. And in a 5 lot of ways, your lover would end up staying home
 6 maybe. And you'd go out. It would be like boys night 7 out.
 8 KC: How did you know that you were a butch or not?
 9 KM: I don't even remember it being a choice for me. I 10 was always very tomboyish, always tended to dress and 11 comb my hair like, you know, like a boy. I always was 12 an aggressor. For me, I feel it was a natural 13 instinct.
 14 KC: And you think that other people easily identified 15 you?
 16 KM: Oh yeah, sure. There was no question that, you 17 know, that you would think that I was a fem in those 18 years of my life.
 19 KC: Do you have photographs?
 20 KM: Yeah, I have some.
 21 KC: Was there a phenomenon in your life of more 22 experiences, butches in the bars sort of helping you 23 along, or had you already been a lesbian so long?
 24 KM: I'd been a lesbian long enough, you know, to hold 25 my own. First of all, even the butches, there was not

1 a lot of sharing of - oh you would sit and you would 2 look at the women, you know, you make oh isn't she hot 3 or isn't she mm, I'd like to get to know her. You 4 know, you did all those type of things together. But 5 you didn't really sit down and talk to each other 6 about your relationships. In a lot of ways, you didn't 7 even talk about your friendships, you know. I'm sure 8 there were times when I did something to a friend that 9 might have hurt her and vice versa, but you didn't 10 talk about it. You just swallowed the pain and put it 11 aside. Compared to today when everybody's into, you 12 know, discussion and talking about relationships and 13 your friendships and being open and upfront, I don't 14 remember that being the same with them back then. You 15 acted like rowdy boys together, you oogled the women 16 and, you know, maybe you made certain kinds of 17 remarks, you know, like oh, I'd like to get next to 18 her and stuff like that. But you never shared personal 19 intimacies with each other the way I feel that I know 20 relate to people. But in my circle anyway, it seemed 21 to be the accepted rule of thumb. I never questioned 22 it.

23 KC: And it was exciting and wonderful to have found 24 these women.

25 KM: Oh, that was without question. I had more fun on

1 weekends when I was in New York finally in the bars
 2 than I really remember having since. I really had good 3 times; it was a lot of fun.
 4 KC: Did you hang in more than one bar?
 5 KM: Yeah, oh yeah, I mean, after while there were 6 quite a few bars opened at the same time. So you could 7 go, you know, bar-hop around. I mean, for a while, we 8 hung out at a place called the One-Two-Three Club 9 which was right 14th Street right off the main big 10 shopping area where Klein's and all these stores were.
 11 It was on a side street. And it was a nice looking 12 club compared to, you know, some that I've been in.
 13 And for a while we, you know, hung out in the One-Two-14 Three and then for a while we would hang out in 15 Cookie's. And then there was Gianani's or Gi'anani's, 16 I never quite got the name straight on that one, which 17 was in the Village. It was very close to the Women's 18 House of Detention. I remember always being a little 19 apprehensive about going in there simply because it
 20 was so close to the Women's House and I used to work 21 there. You know, I was always afraid somebody would 22 see me and my friends.

23 KC: Is this after you got out of the service?

24 KM: Yeah, after I got out of the Marine Corps, I

25 became a correctional officer at the Women's House of

1 Detention.
 2 KC: What was it like in the Marine Corps? I don't want
 3 to skip those years.
 4 KM: Well first of all, of course, I got stationed in 5 California which was just wonderful for me 'cause I 6 loved being out here. I loved San Diego, I loved the 7 weather and all that. The Marine Corps was permanent 8 party, that's after Basic and you get assigned to your 9 regular duty station. It was fun. I met a lot of 10 younger women, that was number one. Most of the women 11 were young. I was already 24 when I went in, going on 12 25. And most of the women I met were 18 and so at that 13 time, most of my friends became these little 18-year-14 olds. And they were gay, I mean, we found each other 15 out pretty much soon after we got there.

16 KC: Would you say that the Women's Marine Corps was 17 predominantly gay at that time?

18 KM: No. I definitely do not feel that was true.

19 KC: Was it homophobic?

20 KM: Very.

21 KC: Did you have any officers who were gay, who acted 22 to sort of protect you?

23 KM: No, there was only one officer in the Marine 24 Corps, at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot that I

25 thought was gay. I mean, you know, she had all, if you

1 went by the characteristics, I mean, she was very 2 tomboyish, very short hair, she walked with a swagger, 3 you know. But it never came up in discussion whether 4 she was or not. We hung out with her eventually. Some 5 of us did. I mean, she was an officer and it was only 6 after I became a sergeant that we started hanging out
 7 together. But even then that was a no-no but we did. I 8 mean, enlisted and officers were not supposed to hang 9 around together.

10 KC: Even if you got to be -

11 KM: If I'd become an officer, yeah, probably, or maybe 12 had I been much, much higher in the ranks of the non-13 commissioned officer ranks, maybe. But as a sergeant, 14 I was still low enough in the ranks that I, you know, 15 it would have not been well looked at had they, you 16 know, been found out.

17 KC: Is sergeant the first to go?

18 KM: That's when you get into your first NCO category, 19 non-commissioned officer, and then it goes up higher

20 after that. But sergeant is the very first level that 21 you hit. So I was, you know, at the low end of the NCO 22 corps. So we did a lot of stuff with her. We used to 23 go out of town a lot and do weekends away and stuff.

24 But it was not around gay things. We just did, you 25 know, regular sightseer things an stuff like that. I

1 was involved eventually in a lesbian investigation
2 conducted by the CID. And at this time, I did have a 3 lover as a matter of fact, I had a lover.

4 KC: When was this, how long had you been in the 5 service?

6 KM: I believe the investigation came down either, I 7 think it was early '67. But I did have a lover at this 8 time. And when I first went into the service, I 9 really, really strived not to have a lover. For the 10 first year I had, you know, no involvement.

11 KC: Why was that?

12 KM: Well, you know, as everybody else, I had heard the 13 stories about witch hunts and, you know, all that and 14 I didn't want to get thrown out of the service. So for 15 the first year, I hung around with a lot of kids, you
16 know, and I partied and stuff but I had no involvement
17 physically with any women while I was in the service, 18 with anybody. I mean, but and then the second year, 19 this woman and I got together.

20 2S1:100-199

21 And we even had an apartment off-post, which we were 22 not really supposed to do, but we did anyway.

23 KC: Did that mean that you didn't sleep there all the 24 time?

25 KM: Right, I mean, we spent time at the apartment and

1 more in my company. And that got to be a hindrance at 2 some point because some of the gay kids I was hanging
3 around with were nervous about her. So I couldn't 4 always invite her on some of our excursions. And 5 finally somewhere along the line I had to tell her 6 that she couldn't keep hanging with me, and she wanted
7 to know why, so I came out to her and told her why.
8 And she said that didn't matter, you know, she wanted
9 to check it out, as a matter of fact, you know, and I
10 said you ain't going to check it out with me. You 11 know, really I was real adamant about not bringing 12 out. And as it turned out, I don't really remember 13 having much of a choice. I think she also, a friend of 14 mine had an apartment, went away for a weekend and 15 said why don't you guys stay over, you know, at the 16 apartment and we did. And being thrown together in 17 that sort of, you know, without a lot of people around 18 us. She kind of started coming on to me, you know, I 19 mean, it was really crazy 'cause I didn't. I was 20 really fighting this woman because I did not want to 21 do this thing. And finally I remember her putting her 22 arms around me and, you know, kissing me and saying 23 please or something like that. And yes, so then I made 24 love to her and I remember she cried afterwards and I
25 was very taken aback by that and I didn't know what

1 We would also spend nights in the barracks. And 2 eventually, like I said, there was an investigation, I 3 was called in. So was the woman I was seeing at the 4 time. And I remember being very, very afraid, not for 5 myself. I was afraid for the other woman, mainly 6 because I didn't think that she could stand up under 7 the questioning and stuff and that she would blurt out
8 that yes, in fact, we were having a relationship. I 9 should add that this woman never had had a prior gay
10 relationship before. In fact, she'd been married to a 11 Marine and it was because of a @Dear Kathy@ letter, 12 her name was Kathy, letter that we kind of got thrown 13 together. I heard her crying one day in her cubicle, 14 in her space, and went over, you know. I didn't know 15 her that well. We lived in the same housing area but I 16 didn't know her that well. And I heard her crying.
17 There was nobody around, I went in, I said what's the 18 matter. And she told me she'd gotten this letter from 19 her husband, that he'd made a mistake, they were too 20 young, all that crap and stuff. So I sort of 21 befriended her. We also worked in the same duty area.
22 But that was funny, I had no sexual interest in Kathy 23 at all. I mean, it was really purely from a, I felt 24 bad for her. And she just started, I wouldn't say 25 clinging, but she definitely started being more and

1 that meant. And what it meant was, after we talked 2 about it, was that she was really naive and she really 3 had an impression that all women did was kiss and hug.
4 And from that experience, I learned that I would never 5 again be so, I would be a little more gentler around 6 it and go maybe a little slower, or maybe talk about 7 it or get some idea of what the woman thought women
8 did together. But after that though, we ended up in a 9 relationship. But I never loved her and it was hard 10 for me because I didn't love. I liked her but I didn't 11 love her, and found that our sexual life together 12 wasn't good, mainly because I really didn't want to 13 have a lot of sex with her. Although she always seemed 14 to want to, I always - it was funny, I always ended up 15 with a headache or sleepy or I didn't well. It was 16 feeling funny but now that I look back on it. But 17 anyway, when the investigation did come down, I was 18 very nervous 'cause I didn't really know if Kathy 19 could stand up under it. As it turned out, she came 20 through with flying colors. They kept me in there 21 quite a while. I don't know, because I was older, I 22 found that women in the military who are older and 23 gay, always seem to get the heap of it, you know, 24 thrown on their shoulders, that you're the one that 25 just went through and just turned all these women gay.

1 I mean, it was, you know, ridiculous. Some of the 2 women, yes, I knew did come out in the military but I
 3 didn't bring them out. They came out with other women.
 4 And I fought very hard not to bring out the one woman
 5 that I did bring out. So as it turned out, they did 6 not have any kind of proof or evidence against Kathy 7 or myself, so that they had to drop the investigation 8 eventually.
 9 KC: Were they investigating other women or only you?
 10 KM: Yeah, I mean, other women were called in and stuff 11 like that.
 12 KC: Did any women get kicked out?
 13 KM: No, no one would have gotten kicked out under that 14 particular investigation but two other women did, to 15 this day unknown to me why, did turn themselves in.
 16 One of the women was brought out by the other woman, 17 okay? And somewhere along the line, they decided that 18 they wanted to be together and they couldn't under the 19 circumstances, being in service. So they themselves in 20 as being gay. I remember I was heartbroken, I was 21 absolutely crushed, because one of the women, the one 22 that was straight when I first met her, I remember she 23 had a crush on me, a very heavy crush, as a matter of 24 fact, and I refused to bring her out; I would not. And 25 then eventually this other woman did bring her out. I

1 wasn't in love with the woman, but I don't know, I
 2 guess maybe I had gotten used to her.
 3 2S1:200-299
 4 But then after six months I said, you know, this is 5 ridiculous, you know, she's going to be in Okinawa for 6 another, god knows how long and, you know, I'm out 7 here with all these wonderful women and stuff, you 8 know.
 9 KC: You stayed in San Diego?
 10 KM: No, I went back to New York, came back to New York 11 and reapplied for my job as a correctional office with 12 the Women's House of Detention.
 13 KC: Oh, you didn't tell me the story about that.
 14 KM: Well, what I had done was I had taken the civil 15 service test prior to going into the military, and 16 then while I was in the military, I got a letter 17 saying come down for the interview, whatever. And then 18 I wrote them back that I was in the service. So what 19 happens is if you're in the service, they put you on a 20 special list. And so when I got out, one of the first 21 things I did was go down there and say okay, I'm out 22 of the service now. And about four months later, in 23 fact January of '68, I got my appointment as a 24 correctional officer.
 25 KC: What made you think of becoming a correctional

1 remember that her name was Suzanne, this woman, she 2 had such potential. She, you know, I mean, she was 3 being groomed for OCS, Office Candidate School, she 4 was very bright, she was gorgeous to look at, I mean, 5 she was real olive-complected with real, real black 6 eyebrows and beautiful black short hair, and beautiful 7 black eyes. I mean, she was just a beautiful woman.
 8 And I just could not believe that she had turned 9 herself in. The other woman I didn't care about 10 because I didn't like her anyway. But for Suzanne I 11 was just heartbroken for her.
 12 KC: So did they leave the service?
 13 KM: Yeah, they got out, they got out.
 14 KC: Did they get dishonorable discharges?
 15 KM: No, no, I think they got generals. And so I was 16 coming up for discharge pretty soon under my regular 17 discharge contract, you know. I was only in for two 18 years active service. And Kathy, the woman that I was 19 lovers with, got orders to Okinawa. She had another 20 year to do. And so, I was discharged in September of 21 '67 and Kathy was sent to Okinawa a couple weeks prior 22 to that. And we stayed in touch for a good six months
 23 after I got out and, you know, claimed undying love
 24 for each other, and I was even being faithful to her,
 25 and that was really ridiculous in some ways 'cause I

1 officer? Did you have other friends in it?
 2 KM: No, but I wanted to be in civil service, I wanted
 3 to be a civil service worker because of the benefits
 4 and all that good stuff. And there was a great 5 newspaper out in New York called @The Chief@ and it
 6 was a civil service newspaper, which I really wish 7 they had out here. But anyway, it would list, oh, 8 upcoming tests and stuff. So I used to buy it every 9 two weeks I think it came out or once a month. And on 10 one of these trips when I bought it, the correctional 11 officer test was coming up and the qualifications were 12 minimal, you know, high school or GED which, by this 13 time, I had gotten my GED. You know, good health, and 14 that was about it, you know, so I said well, I
 15 definitely had the requirements. I could get the job - 16 me and about five or a thousand other women thought so 17 too. I mean, there was a lot of us that took the test 18 that day I remember. But I did pass it and I got put 19 on the list and eventually got called for a job. And 20 it was good money too, it was darn good money. We're 21 talking about, you know, 65 when I took the test. That 22 was darn good money at that time, and then by the time 23 I came out and got the job in '68, the money was even 24 fantastic for the qualifications. But then after I got 25 the job, I realized why, you know. You know, being a

1 correctional officer, especially at the Women's House
 2 of Detention, was the pits. I did it for three years, 3 and I hated every moment of it, hated absolutely every 4 moment of that job. But, like I said, for somebody 5 with just a GED, the money was fantastic. So I stayed 6 and stayed and stayed because of the money. And then I 7 met a whole new group of friends through that job. The 8 correctional staff was, oh, I don't know, I would say 9 half gay and half straight. And the straight part, I'd 10 say half of them were curious. So that I had a lot of 11 fun being a correctional officer, I can tell you.
 12 KC: And there were a lot of third-world women; you 13 mentioned that before.
 14 KM: Oh yeah, they were basically all third-world when 15 I got there. In fact, I was the only, I was the third 16 Puerto Rican on the staff, two of them being sisters, 17 and then I was the third one. And basically all of the 18 other officers were black and then there was a 19 smattering of white officers. Toward the end of my 20 three years, a large influx of white officers did come 21 on the job as a matter of fact. I don't know what that 22 was all about. I'd never seen as many white officers 23 in training before at one time prior to my leaving.
 24 But I made two or three good, good friends and we hung 25 around together basically. And I worked mainly, I used

1 know, you didn't even bother to answer those kind of 2 questions. But that wasn't even the point. The point 3 is that you would go to the bars and you'd run into 4 the inmates.
 5 2S1:300-399
 6 You know, eventually they'd get released and the gay 7 inmates would end up going to the same bars you went 8 to and, of course, you always ran into them. Then they 9 got busted again and went back in the Women's House of 10 Detention and, of course, said oh, I saw Ms Martinez 11 and I saw Ms Smith and I saw Ms Jones, you know, and 12 then you'd or they'd slide up to you and say hey, Ms 13 Martinez, didn't I see you at Gianani's? You'd just 14 look at them and say I don't know what you're talking 15 about and go, you know, and keep stepping. But I'll 16 never forget one of the most frightening times for me 17 was, it was after a particular New Years so it would 18 had to have been some time, either the New Year of '68
 19 or '69, that an inmate came up to me and said hey, Ms
 20 Martinez, I have a real nice picture of you. And I
 21 could feel the blood freeze in my veins. But outwardly 22 I just said, what are you talking about? And she said 23 oh, do you remember the New Years Eve party up at 24 Tubby's. This was a bar up on 123rd Street I believe, 25 or 122nd. Do you remember somebody, you know, walking

1 to love working the four to midnight shift and so did
 2 my friends. So that usually, and I lived very close, I 3 didn't live that far from the Women's House of 4 Detention so that when the three of us like working 5 the same shift on the same days, we would get off 6 work, come over to my house, change our clothes and go 7 out and hit the bars for a few hours. And that's 8 basically - 'cause I thought I had the best of both 9 worlds. I could sleep late in the morning and still be 10 able to hang out for a few hours after 12 o'clock. And 11 as far as ever having anything to do with the inmates, 12 that was - I know most people I hung around with, that 13 wasn't even, you know, considered. I mean, you were, 14 after eight hours, you went out and did your own 15 thing, so we didn't have to fool around in that area.
 16 Although there were one or two who were, you know, 17 really cute, but that was definitely a no-no.
 18 KC: Well, you in fact didn't want the other inmates to 19 know you were gay?
 20 KM: Oh no, I mean, you know, we went through a lot of 21 the trials and tribulations, you know, with the 22 inmates. Inmates would come up to you and say, @Are 23 you gay, Ms Martinez?@ You know, right to your face or 24 things of that nature, and you would have to just 25 stand there and look like what, are you crazy? You

1 across the dance floor and somebody taking a picture?
 2 Well, as soon as she said that, I flashed on that 3 scene because that's exactly what happened. I remember 4 walking across the dance floor, somebody was taking a 5 picture of other people and it seemed I ended up in 6 this picture just as big as life. So, of course, I
 7 just denied any knowledge of what she was talking 8 about and she said well, that's cool, I can dig it.
 9 She said next time my old lady comes to visit me, I'll 10 tell her to bring the picture with her. So I'm trying 11 to be as cool and I'm just saying yeah, you do that.
 12 And I sauntered off and went along my merry way. But I 13 can tell you, I went through some moments of being 14 really scared. I never did end up seeing this picture.
 15 Now whether it was because her friend couldn't get the 16 picture smuggled into the prison or what, I don't 17 know. But I definitely never saw the picture. Or 18 unless the woman was released in the meantime, which 19 could have been the case, I don't remember. But I 20 remember that being real scary for me. But other than 21 that, you just try to pretend that they didn't know 22 what they were talking about, even though, you know, 23 you had seen them ten times, you know, in so many days 24 in a bar or something. So you just pretended. They 25 pretended, you pretended, you know. One big pretense.

1 But I really just hated the job and after almost three 2 years, I just, again, a real unconscious move on my 3 part, I again left work one day. I was working the 4 midnight shift. Midnight and I got off at eight and 5 the next thing I know, I find myself at a Army
 6 recruiter. And this time I went and I joined the Army.
 7 And I got home and I called one of my best friends and 8 I said guess what I just did and I told her and she 9 said @Far Out.@ And the next day she went and she 10 joined. She had always wanted to join but, you know, 11 so when I went ahead and did it, she did it. And as it 12 turned out, we were able to leave together and go into 13 the buddy system into Basic. I ended up leaving her in 14 Basic because of my Marine Corps background and 15 because I had not - it was like almost ten days, it 16 would have been three years I would have been out of 17 the military, out of the Marine Corps. And that ten 18 days made a difference. And what they did was, they 19 pulled me out of Basic, sat me down, I took this test 20 for the Army. It was the Army's eight-week, that would 21 have been the test I would have taken had I went 22 through Basic. And if I passed the test, then I 23 wouldn't have had to go through Basic. As it turned 24 out, I passed the test. I think I needed 147 points to 25 pass the test; I think I got 149. But I passed it and

1 started popping up in a lot of her letters. And I
 2 don't know, it turned out that they ended up -
 3 End of Side 1, Tape 2 of 2
 4 2S2:000-099
 5 KM: - to Vietnam. And he wanted to marry her and she 6 was all confused and whatever and whatever and 7 whatever. And I was crushed, of course, but there
 8 wasn't too much I could about it being at Fort Ord, 9 California. So she went AWOL again and the next thing
 10 I know, she pops up in California and I'm harboring 11 her, she's staying with me, right?
 12 KC: You're not living on the base?
 13 KM: No, I had an apartment off-base. Well, I was 14 living on base at that time, but when she wrote me and 15 told me she was coming out to California, I went out 16 and found, you know, a small house. I rented this 17 small dilapidated house. But, of course, it soon 18 became apparent to other people that she was AWOL and 19 I got called into my commanding officer's office who 20 said, you know, you can't do this, you know, I know 21 that this woman's AWOL and you can't have her staying 22 with you. Either tell her, which I thought was rather 23 cruel of my CO to, you know, to take off and to go to 24 other parts or turn herself in. So I went back with 25 that word to her, to Gay, and said, you know, they

1 therefore I did not have to go through all of the Army
 2 Basic Training. So I had to leave my buddy behind. And 3 then I went off Fort Lee, Virginia, for some advanced 4 training in stock control in Accounting which is sort
 5 of a supply job. And while I was there, I met this 6 woman. She was also in the Army. And I fell head over 7 heels in love. I mean, it was love at first sight. I 8 mean, I had never experienced that before. But I just 9 looked at her and I was just knocked out. I seem to 10 have these pageants for these women who never had 11 prior gay relationships before. Because, as it turned 12 out, she had never had one either, I mean, I just fell 13 in love with her. And within a few weeks, we were 14 lovers. Yes, we were. But as it turned out, I got 15 orders for Fort Ord, California.
 16 2S1:400-425
 17 And she got orders for Fort Rachuca, Arizona. And we 18 were both, you know, really just crushed. And so we 19 separated, we were still lovers but we had to go 20 separate ways. And as it turned out, her name was Gay, 21 by the way and as it turned out, Gay hated the 22 service, absolutely hated it. And what happened was 23 after a few weeks at Fort Rachuca, she was very, very 24 unhappy and went AWOL and then went back, and started 25 writing me letters. And after a while, this guy's name

1 would help get out and get you a general if you, you
 2 know, turn yourself in and they'll get you out.
 3 They'll expedite your paperwork and stuff. So I think 4 she drank half a bottle of brandy the next morning or 5 a couple of mornings. She didn't make up her mind 6 right away. But I had gotten an ultimatum. She had to 7 be either out or turn herself in with X amount of 8 days. And I was thoroughly, you know, beside myself 9 'cause I didn't know what she was going to do. So, 10 anyway, in the long run she said okay and drank this 11 half a bottle of brandy for breakfast and turned 12 herself in which meant she had to live on the base.
 13 Anyway, my CO did keep her word and did expedite her 14 discharge so she got out in a really short time 15 compared to some of the other people that linger on 16 and linger on and wait and wait and wait. And after 17 she was discharged, she stayed for a while with me.
 18 And then guy wrote again and she was back in a flux 19 again. Anyway, the long and short of it was that she 20 decided to marry him and joined him wherever the heck 21 he was and got married. And I continued in the 22 service. I was involved in another investigation at 23 Fort Ord, again they couldn't prove anything. So that 24 one died down very quickly and why these things start, 25 I have no idea. To this day I would love to know, you

1 know, why one starts. But I had put in my paperwork
 2 for Germany, I had wanted to go overseas. And I had 3 been sent back to Fort McClellan, Alabama, for what 4 they called Advanced NCO training which was like a 5 six-week intensive course in public speaking and oh, 6 all kinds of stuff. And while I was at this particular 7 training, I got a telephone call from Washington. It 8 was real funny because usually they don't, you know, 9 you don't messages that you should call Washington.
 10 But I got a message to go call Washington and I went 11 and I talked to this woman sergeant and she said
 12 well - I was a sergeant by this time - she said Sgt.
 13 Martinez, we have your request on file for Germany but 14 we have an opening in Japan for a supply sergeant.
 15 Would you be interested? But I mean, it was like I 16 couldn't believe that I was even asked. But, of 17 course, I was interested, I mean, Japan I mean, it was 18 just such a thrill. So, of course, I said yes, I would 19 love to go. So this in May I got the word that I was 20 going to go to Japan but I didn't actually get to go
 21 to Japan until about August. The military doesn't move 22 very fast, only around certain things. So I went to 23 Japan in August of '72 and that was incredible 24 experience for me. I loved every moment of it. But 25 unfortunately while I was in Japan, I came up for

1 with a code on it could apply for a new one. And I was 2 one of the very first people to have applied for one 3 and I got a new one and all that extra stuff with 4 codes and stuff was not there anymore. And after that 5 I had no problems. Although I became a correctional 6 office again, this time for the federal government, 7 which is the same thing. And I had to have my 8 fingerprints taken and stuff, but I got the job prior 9 to my background investigation coming back because 10 those things take a long time. So I was hired based on 11 my prior experience, based the fact I was in the 12 service, all this good stuff. And it was some months 13 down the road when my background investigation came 14 back and, of course, it came back that I had been 15 discharged for homosexual reasons. I remember the 16 warden of the institution calling me in and telling me
 17 that, you know, it had come back in that way and, you 18 know, but I was a good officer and stuff that he 19 didn't see any reason let me go. I don't really he 20 could have legally. But anyway, he didn't choose to go 21 through any changes so I stayed on the job.
 22 KC: Where were you working at the time?
 23 KM: I was working at the Federal Youth Institution in 24 Pleasanton, California.
 25 KC: So after when you came of San Francisco?

1 reenlistment and I reenlisted and right after I 2 reenlisted, they had an investigation and I think they 3 investigated about five or six of us and I ended up 4 with an honorable discharge but I was discharged for 5 homosexual reasons. And I was the only one.
 6 KC: Is there anything on your discharge that indicates 7 why you were discharged?
 8 KM: Originally there was. You get what they call a DD-
 9 214 and on there it has all your history and, you 10 know, all this good stuff. And it also has the type of 11 discharge that you got. Now mine said honorable but it 12 also had a code on it. And the code was, for some 13 reason it's latent homosexuality. But it was coded 14 that way. And, you know, I did not get a job I 15 remember with PG&E which would have been a pretty good 16 job simply because they had the code books. And when 17 they looked up the code, although they didn't tell me 18 that was the reason why I didn't get the job. They 19 told me I didn't pass my math test which I knew was 20 absolutely ridiculous. It was the simplest math test
 21 I've ever taken in my life. But I was really crushed
 22 and I didn't fight it or anything like that. But soon 23 after that incident, the Supreme Court came down with 24 the decision that that was unconstitutional and the 25 services put out that anyone that had gotten a DD-214

1 KM: After Japan. Yeah, I was discharged in Oakland,
 2 California, and then I chose to stay.
 3 KC: Did your family know what the reason for your 4 discharge was?
 5 KM: That was the bitchy part about it because my 6 mother did get something from the service saying I was 7 being discharged for those reasons, I believe. I think 8 so, I never asked her. I know that if you were 18, 9 over 18, I'm not quite sure. But I remember my mother
 10 saying yes, she had gotten some kind of a letter and I 11 never quite wanted to go into it with her so I never 12 asked her what it said. But I believe I was told by 13 other people that they sent, you know, your parent a 14 letter telling them that you're being discharged for 15 this reason. But my mother and I never discussed it 16 although I know she did get a letter. And I was 17 crushed, I was really, really crushed. I fought the 18 service a long time because they did not want to give 19 me an honorable originally. They wanted to go for a 20 general and I refused to accept it because my record 21 up to that point, including that time, was outstanding 22 and I just refused to take a general, and I told them
 23 I would fight them to the nth degree.
 24 2S1:100-199
 25 KC: Were you talking to lawyers or were you doing this

1 all on your own?
 2 KM: No, I had a military lawyer. I think if I had been 3 in America, I would have gone for a civilian lawyer
 4 and maybe have won, I don't know. But I was in Japan
 5 and I didn't have access to the ACLU or any other 6 organization so I went with a military lawyer 'cause I 7 had no other choice. And I think he did the best he 8 could under the circumstances.
 9 KC: You got an honorable so you did win.
 10 KM: Oh yes, I got my honorable. The general, I 11 understand, just got fed up with the whole thing and 12 just said give her the honorable already. So I never 13 waived my rights, though, I never admitted to being 14 gay. So it was a sad time for me; I was heartbroken.
 15 KC: Did you have any lovers when you were in Japan?
 16 KM: One. In fact we were no longer lovers and it was 17 she who implicated me as being a lesbian and based on 18 her word and her statement, which is all they really 19 had, I was thrown out. This is why I feel - and it was 20 really funny because she admitted in her statement, 21 which I have a copy of, under the Freedom of 22 Information Act, I was able to get a lot of that 23 stuff.
 24 KC: I was going to ask you if you'd done that.
 25 KM: And I read her statement and she had explicitly

1 stated that she had had three or so prior 2 relationships before she and I became involved. But 3 they kept her in the service. So I don't know, it was 4 a real hard time for me. Especially since the young 5 lady lived in the room right next-door to me. And my 6 commanding officer, who hated me, I mean, she was a 7 very strange lady. I don't know whether she was a 8 closet case herself or if she was just scared to death
 9 that she might be gay or what. But she had a 10 passionate dislike for me. And it was at her 11 instigation that they wanted to - in fact, she wanted
 12 to give me a bad conduct discharge, for god's sakes, I 13 mean, that's how much the woman disliked me. But I 14 remember going down and requesting that the young 15 woman that lived next door to me that turned me in, be 16 moved, or that I be moved to another floor or to 17 another building 'cause we had two buildings that 18 housed women. And she refused, she absolutely refused
 19 because her premise was that I had such a bad temper
 20 that she knew, she just knew, that at some point I
 21 would do something to this woman and therefore I 22 definitely would get, if not a bad conduct discharge, 23 I would definitely get a general, 'cause she did not 24 want to see me get an honorable. And to the day I left 25 Japan, I lived next door to that woman, I saw her in

1 the common bathroom we used, I saw her in the 2 hallways, I saw her, you know, constantly and never 3 once, never once, did I say one word to her. Although 4 sometimes I just wanted to ask her, why in god's name 5 did you do this to me? But I was not going to give my 6 commanding officer once ounce information that I was 7 harassing or bothering this woman in any way.
 8 KC: Right, you weren't going to give her any rope.
 9 KM: No rope, no satisfaction. In fact she was livid, 10 absolutely livid, when she found out I was going to 11 get the honorable. In fact, she ended up losing her 12 command which I felt real good about because I think 13 she was a little sick. Anyway, I left Japan and I came 14 home. Well, I came to Oakland and I settled here in 15 San Francisco.
 16 KC: Why don't we stop? I know we can get together and 17 talk about some of the rest of it.
 18 KM: Fine, sounds good, yeah.
